

Inflation Increased to Over 25% from the Previous Year After 2001

Country experts know inflation has historically been the country's most severe recurring problem.

